ON CAMPUS

Rhythm and jive wails loud, and clear at the auditorium tomorrow night. The occasion? Shorty Rogers and his Quintet are tuning the brass and beating the drums at Narbonne's annual jazz concert.

The show begins at 8 p.m., tickets are $1.50 ($1.75 if bought at the door).

Food, fun, and bright sports clothes are the ingredients of this year's senior picnic to be held at Peck Park next Wednesday afternoon. It promises to be a day of good times for all senior A's.

A trip to Huntington Library is on the agenda for Douglas Penny's creative writing and advanced composition classes next Monday. The Huntington Library in San Marino is renowned for its excellent facilities.

Narbonne played hostess to Bell and University High girls at GAA playday last Wednesday.

After an exhausting but enjoyable two hours on the field, exercising their athletic skills, the girls returned to the gym for food and, of course, much conversation.

The American Field Service Chapter at Narbonne will hold an assembly April 26 to acquaint Narbonneites more intimately with our foreign-exchange students, Pierrette L'Allemand of France and Carlos Villarreal of Argentina.

The foreign exchange students, as well as Narbonne's past representatives abroad, will compose the panel discussing international relations. A question session will follow.

Bermudas, straw hats and other attire, normally considered unsuitable for school wear, will be donned April 29 in honor of Gaucho Day.

The deal is that sometime during the preceding week, loyal Narbonneites will purchase a gaucho button for 25 cents to aid the annual Boys' League fund-raising campaign.

Merry-making gauchos are entitled to revel in informal but ostentatious garb for 25 cents. Non-button wearers are not.

Girls! Only two weeks left to whip up that cute cotton for entrance in Narbonne's annual Cotton Day Contest May 6.

The stipulations are: It must be homemade and in good taste for school wear. Contest entrants are required to register in Mrs. Price's office with a generous sample of their dress material.

Whirling before the floodlights in your OWN creation on judgment day will justify all your toil—start that dress now!

In the not-too-distant future approaches that spectacular of all social events—the Senior Prom, May 13.

While idly dreaming as you hem that dress for Cotton Day, dwell upon your Prom gown—If it's to be of your origination, don't postpone the swing!

In keeping with the tradition, don't postpone the sewing! pending every effort to make the Prom a superlative and memorable soiree.

REGISTRATION OPENS TODAY AT MAGRUDER

Magruder School will hold kindergarten round-up today and tomorrow, with parents of next year's kindergartners asked to register the names of their youngsters at the school.

Children who will be five on or before next Dec. 2 are eligible to enter kindergarten next year. Birth certificates or other proof of birth dates should be brought.

Parents may register their children for physicals, Monday and Tuesday.
